Market Update, New Listings, Special Offers, & Coming Soon

Greetings!

Welcome to our June 2011 newsletter. I hope this letter finds you well and enjoying the season. The summer has been very steady with business remaining at a heady pace. An unusual confluence of factors has combined to make this market full of opportunity. The bullion markets have ensured profits in many parts of the industry and that always helps. At the same time general softness in the macro economic outlook has keep some players hedging. This gives more aggressive buyers less competition. Overall we have seen a lot of interesting coins that we have been able to buy, however stock is not backing up. To the contrary, we are having a hard time keeping high quality coins in our boxes. This is partly because we are extremely careful about what goes on the list. If a coin doesn't make my personal cut, it gets sold off in other venues. This eliminates a lot of coins and leaves really scarce and above average examples for you to choose from. If you care about quality you're in the right place.

The summer is about to heat up with a round of major shows taking us through the middle of August. Next up in June is the big Whitman production in Baltimore. After that it's back to Orlando for world class Florida heat aptly named FUN. Maybe they should call it Sun? I like the summer show in Orlando. Once you get past the 90 plus degrees and humidity Florida is great. FUN insures a large turnout and it's a nice warm up for ANA. Speaking of which, the ANA show this year will set a new milestone. PNG day will last 4 days and the show will run consecutively from Friday august 12th through Saturday the 20th. 9 days of coin show. Unbelievable, even to a veteran like myself. We really do hope to see you at one or more of these venues. We will be at each with plenty of fancy wares and a stack of checks ready to buy your offerings! Danny will detail all the table numbers below and they will also be listed in our show schedule section on the site.

Group deals

We are going to start adding a few group deals to the newsletter. Those proved popular in the past and we hope they will again. These groups will either be small sets, or groups of similar coins at great prices, often near wholesale. This time we have some BTW and WC sets as well as some really pretty toned 97-s dollars at a modest premium.

Our special offerings

Additionally we have a special wholesale pricing deal in place on commems. PCGS and NGC commems priced off the GreySheet. A great way to fill out or start a commemorative set. Danny is in charge of this listing and it does change. Check with him for availability or to leave a want list. Also we still have a few commemorative books which we are offering for the low low low price of free!

Danny will also tell you about some of our most popular programs including some special tips on how to use our website.

HLRC is Always Buying and we pay out every deal with Overnight Checks or Bank Wires.

Try finding that someplace else!

Sincerely,

Harry
